Chesapeake Classrooms

ED626

3 hours Graduate Credit

Thank you for registering for the MBU Course: Chesapeake Classrooms ED626. This course is offered via a partnership between the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and Mary Baldwin University. After completing the Chesapeake Classrooms Field Course you may take this course as a non-degree student or as an elective in the Master of Education Degree at MBU. For more information <https://marybaldwin.edu/education/> or contact:

Dr. Tamra Willis, Adjunct Professor
Mary Baldwin University
twillis@marybaldwin.edu

Registration is due by August 10: ED626 is an on-line fall semester course, with final grades available in late November/early December. Please follow these directions in order to register for the course.

1. Go to the MBU website and choose Apply in the upper right-hand corner: <https://marybaldwin.edu/>
2. Complete the information portion of the process.
3. Choose Graduate and pick Education in the drop-down menu.
4. On the Graduate Application, under Goals of MBU Study, select:
 - Have you previously been awarded a Bachelor's degree? Yes
 - Certificate/License/Non-degree study
 - Under Course of Study, Select Masters (Graduate Coursework) as Goal of your MBU studies? and MEd as What do you intend to study? once you are in the application.
 - Select your start year and your start term.
 - You will receive an acceptance letter and asked to pay a $50 application fee at that time (with instructions). You will also receive an MBU email address and student ID number.

Once you apply and receive the student ID and email address, email Dr. Willis to let her know of your application. Apply for the course using the online process (be sure you choose ED626 and not another course!!). Also, please include the complete name of the weeklong Chesapeake Classrooms field course you are taking with CBF.

Course Credit: Upon successful completion of ED626, you will receive 3 hours of graduate credit. You may request an official transcript to submit to your school division for recertification points. Should you decide to take additional courses at MBU, the Chesapeake Classrooms course will count as an elective in the M.Ed. degree.

Costs: Tuition for CC is ½ our normal graduate rate since you are taking part of the course with CBF. Tuition will be $742 for 3 hours graduate credit plus a standard $60 technology fee= $802 total. You will be billed for this amount after the course begins and may pay via personal check, school division check or invoice, or credit card (on-line only) at that time.
